

Attend to the Conference

Volos offers various options regarding means of mass transportation, to take you to the Vocational Training Center (KEK) of University of Thessaly in which the conference takes place.

By public bus:

For attendees who are planning to stay at the suggested hotels mentioned in the website, there are numerous public bus stations all the way to the KEK.

Park Hotel

For those who choose to stay in Park Hotel, the bus stop N.1005 in the cross-section of Polymeri and Kassaveti Str. is at walking distance from the hotel [Fig 1]. From there they can pick No. 1 Line and head to bus stop at the cross-section of Dimitriados and Solonos Str. (bus stop code N.1010) [Fig 2]. There, they can change into Line No.15 which has a stop next to KEK (bus stop at Pagason Str., bus stop code N.1511) [Fig 3].

For the return to the hotel, the attendees will follow the same route backwards. They can pick Line No.15 from bus stop at Pagason Str. (bus stop code 1511) and after few stops, change to Line No.1 at the bus stop located in the cross-section of Dimitriados and Solonos Str. (bus stop code 1010) [Fig 4], which will take them to bus stop located at the cross-section of Kassaveti and Polymeri Str (bus stop code N.1005).

Domotel Xenia Volos Hotel

For those who choose to stay in Domotel Xenia Hotel, they can follow the same itinerary as before (first Line No.1, to Dimitriadou and Solonos Str. cross-section bus station [Fig 2] and finally Line No.15 to bus station at Pagason Str., bus stop code N.1511 [Fig 3]). The only difference is that the residents of Domotel Xenia Hotel can pick Line No.1 from bus stop at Filippou Ioannou (bus stop code N.1003) [Fig 5].

For the return to the hotel, the same itinerary as for those staying in Park Hotel occurs, except that residents of Domotel Xenia should disembark at the bus stop at Filippou Ioannou (bus stop code N.1003).

Volos Palace

For those who will choose to stay in Volos Palace, the way to KEK is very easy. The nearest bus stop is near the city hall (bus stop code N.2039) [Fig 6] and is within walking distance from the hotel. From there, they can pick Line No.15 which will take them directly to KEK.

For their return, attendees will pick Line No.15 from the bus stop at Pagason Str. and after few bus stops they can disembark at the bus station stationed at the cross-section of 2nd November Ave. and Vassani Str. (bus stop code N.1040) [Fig 7] The hotel is within 60-80 meters distance.

Kipseli Hotel

For those who will choose to attend the Kipseli Hotel, they can proceed to the bus station at the cross-section of Ermou and Venizelou Str. (bus stop code N.2038) [Fig 8]. In order to go there, they can walk along the Argonafton Str. and after four blocks they will reach Venizelou Str. From there, they can follow Venizelou Str. until they reach, after three blocks, the bus stop. From there, they can pick Line No.15 which will take them directly to KEK.

For their return, attendees will pick Line No.15 from the bus stop at Pagason Str. and after few bus stops they can disembark at the bus station stationed at the cross-section of Ermou and K. Kartali Str. (bus stop code N.2003) [Fig 9]. After they disembark from the bus, they can walk three blocks along the K. Kartali Str. until they reach Argonafton Str. From there, the hotel is at three blocks distance.

The ticket prices are of two different zones, A and B. The ticket of zone A costs 1.10 euros and that of zone B costs 1.50 euros and they are applicable for one route only, so it is prudent for the attendees that want to get around using public bus transportation, that they should a-priori acquire the necessary number of tickets in order for them to go to KEK and back to their hotel.

In the bus stops at cross-section of Iasonos and Solonos Str., as well as in the one of Dimitriadou and Solonos Str., automated ticket machines are stationed, functioning 24 hours a day, where you can buy your tickets. Near the Park Hotel and Domotel Xenia Hotel, there is an automated ticket machine at the cross-section of Analipseos Ave. and Vlahava Str. For residents of Volos Palace, an automated ticket machine is stationed at the cross-section of 2nd November Ave. and Vassani Str.

By taxi:

Attendees can also choose taxis to get them from their respective hotels to KEK directly. The cost for the ride should be around 2,5 - 3,5 euros (depending on whether there are taxis available in the region or be called upon).

Late attendees:

For late attendees, depending on the mean of transportation they choose to come to Volos, there are again many options as to how to get to KEK.

KTEL

The attendees arriving at Volos using intercity public bus transportation (KTEL), after they disembark at KTEL Terminal at Sekeri Str., they can pick Line No.15 from the public bus terminal located just across the street. They can also acquire their tickets from there.

Nea Anchialos National Airport

The attendees arriving at Volos via the National Airport of Nea Anchialos can pick the intercity public bus whose transit is linked directly with their respective flights. After their arrival at the KTEL Terminal, they can follow the same procedure as before.

Port

Attendees arriving by ship, after exiting from the port, they can proceed to the bus station located in the cross-section of Dimitriadou and Solonos Str. (bus stop code N.1042). To reach there, they can walk a distance of two blocks on Venizelou Str., turn left at Dimitriadou Str. and straight ahead to the bus stop.

Train

Attendees arriving by train can pick a taxi from the many that are stationed at the Train Station, which can take them directly to KEK.
